

DBA LAB 6

Develop an application (DOS: 18th April)

- Front end (your choice) and Back end(MySQL)
- Minimum two main forms
 - Login form
 - Application form
- Login form (opening form or opened on click of change password button)
 - Username, Password and
 - Login button, change password button
- Change password screen (On click event of change password button)
 - Username , old password, new password and change button
- Application form (On click event of login button)
 - Insert, delete, update and select button
- Fill the form (on click event of insert button)
 - System generated unique identifier, name, photo, email id, postal address, phone no etc and submit button
 - Form validation on clicking the submit button
- Deleting the record/column (on click event of insert button)
 - What to delete and from where and delete button
- Updating the record/column (on click event of update button)
 - What to update and from where and update button
- Displaying the records/columns (on click event of select button)
 - What to display and from where and display button (should not be able to modify in display option)